

2016 Kyoto Symposium (The Second International KURRN Symposium)

Considering the Modality of Risk Research from a Viewpoint of Practical Use in Policy and Decision Making

August 31, 2016 13:00-17:00

Kyoto University Clock Tower 2F
International Conference Hall 1&2

Language: Japanese and English
(Simultaneous translation will be served)

Free of charge

Moderators: Takashi Kusumi (Professor, Graduate School of Education, Kyoto Univ.)

Minoru Yoneda (Professor, Graduate School of Engineering, Kyoto Univ., KURRN facilitator)

Opening address: Kayo Inaba (Executive Vice-President of Kyoto Univ.)

Keynote speech "Engagement of Risk Researchers to Policy and Decision Making in EU and Germany"

Ortwin Renn (Professor, University of Stuttgart, ex-President of the Society for Risk Analysis)

Reports I. "Risk Perception in Japanese Culture: A Cultural Psychological Approach"

Yukiko Uchida (Associate Prof., Kokoro Research Center, Kyoto Univ.)

2. "Effectiveness of Two-step Interactive Risk Communication: Can it Contribute to the Improvement of Citizens' Risk Literacy?"

Yayoi Kito (Researcher, Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto Univ.)

3. "Can Citizens Accept Individual Radiation-dose Criteria?" (tentative)

Yoko Shimada (Associate Prof., Graduate School of Engineering, Kyoto Univ.)

4. "Risk Communication in the Political Administration for Waste Management" (tentative)

Misuzu Asari (Associate Prof., Graduate School of Global Environmental Studies, Kyoto Univ.)

5. "Shifting from Disaster Prevention to Disaster Reduction - Dealing with the Risk of Unexpected"

Masamitsu Onishi (Associate Prof., Disaster Prevention Research Institute, Kyoto Univ.)

6. "Risk Communication and Shared Decision Making in Healthcare"

Kyoko Kitazawa (PhD student, Graduate School of Medicine, Kyoto Univ., Affiliate Prof. of Kyoto Pharmaceutical Univ.)

7. "Future Risk Research in Kyoto University – from Risk Management to Political Contribution" (tentative)

Yasuto Matsui (Associate Prof., Agency for Health, Safety and Environment, Kyoto Univ.)

Discussion time by all participants

Closing address: Yoko Niiyama (Professor, Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto Univ., ex-President of the Society for Risk Analysis Japan)

Registration

Please send an email with your name and affiliation to KURRN <kyotou.rrn@gmail.com>. Please specify "Symposium Registration" in the subject line. While onsite registrations will be available, we would appreciate your cooperation regarding pre-registration. (Capacity: 100)

Access

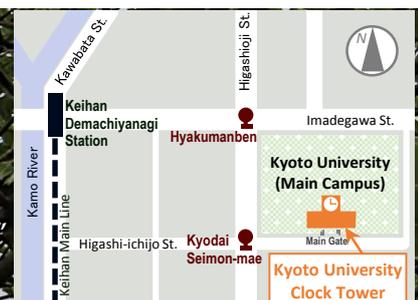

From Kyoto Station: City Bus No.17. Get off at "Hyakumanben."

Or City Bus No.206. Get off at "Kyodai Seimon-mae."

From Hankyu Kawaramachi Station: City Bus No.3 or 17. Get off at "Hyakumanben"

Or City Bus No. 31 or 203. Get off at "Kyodai Seimon-mae."

From Keihan Demachiyana Station: About 20 minutes walk.

Organizer: Kyoto University Risk Research Network, and the Society for Risk Analysis Japan
More info: Kyoto University Risk Research Network (KURRN) E-mail: kyotou.rrn@gmail.com
Symposium website: <http://risk.env.kyoto-u.ac.jp/kurrrn/kurrrn.html>